Itinerary Changes

Atlantis and Oceania have carefully planned this cruise itinerary for your enjoyment. Although we do our best to adhere to published ports and times, both weather and sea conditions may force us to alter the itinerary during the cruise.

In the unlikely event of an itinerary change while sailing, we will communicate our new plan both through ship wide (outside of cabin) announcements and through an updated Oceania Currents. Neither Atlantis nor Oceania shall be held liable for any damages resulting from any itinerary change according to your Passenger Ticket Contract.

Get Organized

Register Online with Oceania

Please take a few minutes right now to register online for this cruise in order to expedite check-in at the pier. Please visit the following by February 21 to register: <https://www.oceaniacruises.com/alreadybooked/default.aspx>

There is also a link on the atlantisevents.com site. You will need both your Oceania Reservation Number from your registration email, and your passport number to register. Please note that the Oceania Reservation Number is different from the Atlantis Confirmation Number. You may also book shore excursions from the same site.

Review Your Travel Documents

No paper documentation is required to board this cruise since all records are stored electronically. All you need is your passport and a valid credit card for incidentals. Luggage tags will be available upon arrival at the pier.

Please be sure you are booked correctly for all elements of your vacation. Also note that your acceptance of both the Atlantis Confirmation Letter and the Oceania Passenger Cruise Contract constitutes acceptance of the conditions contained therein.

Place one of the Oceania luggage tags on each of your checked bags prior to arrival at the pier. Additional luggage tags will be available at the pier if necessary.

Passport & Visa Requirements

All guests must possess a valid passport that should be valid for at least one month following the end of your trip. Please note that it is the responsibility of all passengers to have the necessary documentation before boarding the vessel. Failure to provide proper and valid documentation will result in denied boarding, and no refund will be provided.

A valid Brazilian Visa is also required for this cruise, and must be obtained prior to boarding, preferably from your country of residence. Guests without this visa will be denied boarding.

In order to facilitate the ship's customs clearance in each port and to maximize your time ashore, your passport will be collected by the ship's staff upon embarkation. Your passports will be in the care of the ship's Chief Purser and will be returned to you prior to disembarkation.

Finally, you need to have paid the "reciprocity fee" before arriving in Argentina.

You may pay the reciprocity fee here:

Packing Advice

On Board Clothing

Atlantis emphasizes a casual, comfortable atmosphere with no specified dress code. Sportswear, beachwear, and casual resort attire is appropriate at all times. You might want a sweater or light jacket for the nighttime hours as it can get windy at sea.

There are no formal nights, and absolutely no need for a jacket and tie.

We do ask that no beach shorts or tank tops are worn in the Main, Toscana, and Polo restaurants in the evening, but that's just a request.

On Shore Clothing

Plan for warm, even hot weather with possibly cooler breezes at night. We recommend loose, comfortable cottons or other lightweight clothing. And don't forget a hat!

Most of the ports are very casual with a beach-friendly attitude. We suggest casual beachwear and some really comfortable shoes. For Rio and Buenos Aires we suggest comfortable, unobtrusive city clothing. Some tours involve long bus rides and/or considerable walking so comfort is essential. Please bear in mind that most shore excursion buses are air-conditioned and can be cool.

In all cases, we strongly recommend leaving all valuables, including expensive watches and jewelry, onboard or at home. There is a fair amount of petty crime in many South American cities and we don't want any of you to end up victims.

Special Outfits to Consider

Due to the long nature of this cruise, we've kept the theme parties to a minimum. Details are below, but you'll be comfortable with or without an outfit. All events are outside on deck.

- Carnival Countdown Party - A little preview for your best (or second choice) Carnival outfit. Colorful, fantasy, masked, or simply skimpy would fit right in. Or just be a tourist and enjoy the parade.
- Copacabana RetroT-Dance - There's a song here somewhere as we give our popular disco t-dance a Brazilian spin. Step (or line dance) back in time to the mythical "Copacabana" and we'll bring back the spirit of the 70s lives for a few brief hours in the afternoon. Artificial fabrics, excess facial hair, oversized shoes, and obnoxious chains welcome.
- Dog Tag T-Dance - Now that our military members can come out to play, it's time for a little creative interpretation the military uniform. Civilians welcome. Dog Tags provided. The rest is up to you to reveal.
- Atlantis White Party - White, white, white. Any style that suits you.

Miscellaneous Packing Advice

Bring plenty of sunblock, as the sun can be deceptively intense. Also, bring your own basic toiletries as the onboard store is not open while we are in port.

If you are taking any medications, please make sure you bring them in your carry-on, in their original prescription containers, to avoid delays in customs.

Plan for uncertainty. Pack at least one change of clothes in your carry on bags in case your bags are lost or mishandled en route.

Prohibited Items

Please do not bring any of the following onboard, and do not place these items in your checked luggage: Irons (including travel irons), alcoholic beverages, knives, firearms, or any other potentially dangerous item.

If your luggage contains any of the above items, your bag will be held at security and will not be delivered to your stateroom.

Currency Advice

The entire ship operates on U.S. Dollars onboard. The current rates of exchange for our ports of call are as follows:

|------------------------|-----------------------|
| Argentina Peso (ARS) | $1 USD = ARS $7.8 |
| Uruguay New Peso (UYU) | $1 USD = UYU $22.33 |
| Brazil Real (BRL) | $1 USD = BRL 2.4 |

We highly recommend using your ATM card to get the best rate of exchange in cash, just be wary of bank fees. There are plenty of ATM machines throughout our ports. You'll get the best exchange by using a credit cards for large purchases.

As you may have heard, the currency situation in Argentina is somewhat unstable, and there is a fairly well known "blue rate" of around 12 pesos per dollar available through many private businesses. We recommend bringing US dollars for any purchase and trying to negotiate this rate. Beware of counterfeit currency!

Getting Ready

Weather Forecast

February weather in the South America is usually very pleasant and warm. You can expect high temperatures around 85°F / 27°C and lows around 70°F / 20°C. Rain is always a possibility, but we do our best to avoid it. It will feel cooler onboard the ship due to wind.

Baggage Essentials

Most airlines limit checked bags and carry-on luggage. Check with your carrier for specific allowances. The standard limit is 50 pounds (23 kilos) per piece. Excess or overweight bags may incur a substantial surcharge, so please plan accordingly.

Do not place any valuables, especially your passport, in checked luggage. If you are taking any medications, please make sure you bring them in your carry-on, in their original prescription containers, to avoid delays in customs. Always keep hand luggage with you.

Plan for uncertainty. Pack at least one change of clothes in your carry-on bags in case your bags are lost or mishandled en route.

Please be sure each piece of luggage has a luggage tag listing your name, and complete address. Affix the preprinted cruise luggage tags only before heading to the pier.

What if the Airlines Lose My Luggage?

If your luggage does not arrive with you, please do all of the following:

1. Get a complete report from the airline, including a receipt and tracking number for your luggage. Make sure that you tell the airline that you are boarding Oceania Regatta, and tell them that the ship sails at 6:00 pm.
2. Upon arrival on the ship, go immediately to the main reception where they will make a copy of your lost baggage report. The ship will attempt to track your luggage and follow up directly with the airlines.
3. Be patient. Depending on the airline it might arrive prior to sailing. Our port agents, in concert with the ship, will attempt to deliver any lost luggage directly to your room. If your luggage does not arrive, they will keep you informed with the latest news from your airline.

Please understand that neither Oceania nor Atlantis has lost your luggage. We can only assist you in recovering your luggage from the airline and in communicating with them. Ultimately, the airline is responsible to you for any loss or inconvenience you encounter.

Check-In and Embarkation

Terminal Location

The pier in Buenos Aires is called Terminal de Pasajeros, or Passenger Terminal. It is the only cruise ship terminal in the city, and is located about 42 Kilometers from the (EZE) airport, near the center of the city.

A taxi from the airport to the pier costs approximately $40, and takes approximately 45 minutes.

Ship Embarkation Times

The pier facility in Buenos Aires is very small, so we ask all guests to respect the following times for embarkation.

Suites and Concierge level guests may embark at 12 noon, with access to these rooms for starting at 1:00 pm.

For all other guests, embarkation will begin at 3pm.

The Terrace Café will be serving a light lunch until 5pm.

How do I Check In?

You will need your passport, Brazilian visa, and a valid credit card to check in for the cruise. You will then be issued a WorldCard, which will serve as your room key and identification card for boarding and re-boarding the ship.

Upon arrival to the port, you will check in, pass through security and your luggage will be transferred by porters to your stateroom. Please carry any documents and valuables in your hand luggage.

Luggage will be delivered directly to your stateroom at least one hour prior to departure. If your luggage has not been delivered to your stateroom one hour prior to sailing, please notify the Reception Desk.

A mandatory Lifeboat Drill will take place within 24 hours of departure. The purpose of the drill is to familiarize you with routine safety procedures such as life jacket use, muster stations, and lifeboat locations. The Muster Station specific to each stateroom is posted on the back of each stateroom door. The time of the Guest Lifeboat Drill is listed in Oceania Currents.

Onboard the Regatta

Personal Funds & Shipboard Charges

For your convenience, Oceania offers a cashless system on board. All onboard purchases and services will be billed to your onboard account. You will simply present your Oceania WorldCard whenever purchases are made. To activate your onboard account, you will be required to visit the ship's Reception Desk and register a credit card imprint. Oceania Cruises accepts American Express, MasterCard, Visa, and Discover Card. Personal checks are not accepted. If you wish to settle your account with traveler's checks or cash, you will be asked to make a cash deposit at the Reception Desk. The U.S. dollar is the standard currency for all transactions onboard. In order to realize the best exchange rate overseas, we suggest that you take advantage of the ATM machines located in many of the ports of call.

Cash advances are also available at the Reception Desk. A daily limit of $500 per registered credit card, can be billed to your credit card for a 5% transaction fee.

Customs & Immigration at Sea

At each port of call, customs and immigration officials will board the ship and must clear it before we are allowed to go ashore. Normally, this occurs without your knowledge or participation. Occasionally, passengers are called for inspection. In these cases, please follow the instructions provided to assure that we are able to disembark in a timely manner in each port.

Alcoholic Beverage Restrictions

Oceania Cruises reserves the right to limit or refuse to allow alcoholic beverages to be brought onboard the ship for consumption during your cruise vacation. Any alcohol brought onboard or purchased onboard will be held in secure storage and delivered to your stateroom on the last night of the cruise.

Shore Excursions

If you pre-booked shore excursions prior to arrival at the ship, you will receive tickets for these excursions in your stateroom.

You may purchase additional shore excursions onboard, subject to availability, at the shore excursions desk.

Atlantis has worked closely with Oceania to enhance and develop excursions that will be fun and exciting for our group. Many of the excursions are "exclusive" to Atlantis guests, although in some cases the tours may be mixed with guests from other cruise ships. If you are in doubt, please inquire with shore excursions before booking.

Power Onboard

There are several electrical outlets located in each stateroom and suite bathroom. Available current is both 110v and 220v. You may use personal appliances from the U.S. without the need for electrical converters or transformers. No additional tipping is needed but may be extended at your discretion if the service is exceptional.

Onboard Library

The library offers a wide variety of books, reference materials and magazines for your enjoyment onboard. As a courtesy to your fellow guests, we kindly ask that you limit your selections to no more than two books at any given time.

Smoking Policy

For your comfort and safety, smoking will be permitted only in a designated section on the aft port side of Horizons Bar, and the forward starboard section of the outdoor Pool Deck. All other areas will remain smoke free. This includes all guest staterooms and suites, verandas, restaurants, public areas, the Casino, and all other areas of the ship. Cigar and Pipe smoking is only permitted on the starboard forward section of the outdoor pool deck.

Please note that Atlantis and/or Oceania reserves the right to change the smoking policy at any time depending on guest requirements. A complete detail of the smoking areas onboard can be found in your stateroom upon embarkation in the Cruise Currents.

If You Have a Problem or Question

Both the Guest Relations Desk and the Atlantis Information desk can handle just about any difficulty you may encounter. Generally, issues relating to your stateroom, the ship, schedules, or billing should be directed to the Front Desk. Questions regarding entertainment, service, special requests, or anything else should be directed to the Atlantis desk. Questions about excursions should go directly to the shore excursions desk.

If the Atlantis desk is unattended, please feel free to ask any Atlantis Team member and we will assist you.

We recommend that all medications be in their original container with the pharmacist's label attached and carried in your hand luggage.

If you should come down with a contagious disease, or even suspect a contagious disease, it's compulsory that you report it to the ship's infirmary for the safety of everyone on board. Getting Around

As you know, we'll be docked in Rio for three days, at the main port near downtown.

Terminal Name: Pier Maua–Av Rodriques Alves 10–Terminal passageiros

The terminal is located about a 15 minute drive from Copabana and about 20 minutes from Ipanema. Atlantis and Oceania are working on a shuttle bus service to provide transfers to these areas on a regular basis. Taxis are available, and you should always use certified taxis with ID and the light bubbles on top of the taxis.

Safety Considerations

Rio is safe if you pay attention to your surroundings and heed some basic cautions. We strongly recommend that you do not wear jewelry when heading off the ship into Rio, do not bring extra bags or leave anything unattended on the beach. Use disposable cameras whenever possible and do not leave expensive cameras hanging around your neck in public view. Do not ever leave beverages unattended. Never let a local buy you a drink. Do not accept anything from strangers. Be aware at all times, stick with a group and do not wander into unknown areas alone. Non-cruise guests will not be allowed onboard the Regatta at anytime during this trip. No exceptions due to customs and immigration laws.

Transfers to the Sambadrome
